THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 15, 1977

MEMORANDUM FOR THE HEADS OF

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

FROM: Greg Schneiders GS.

SUBJECT: The Presidential Medal of Freedom

The President has asked for recommendations of individuals deserving of The Presidential Medal of Freedom. We will be submitting a list of fifteen names to him from which he will choose approximately five.

The Medal is awarded to individuals who have "made an especially meritorious contribution to (1) the security or national interest of the United States, or (2) world peace, or (3) cultural or other significant public or private endeavors." (See Executive Order No. 11085, February 22, 1963.) This may be awarded posthumously. There will be only one degree of the Medal issued. The degree "with distinction" is being eliminated.

The award can, of course, be used to highlight certain issues such as youth, human rights, volunteerism, etc.

We would like to have your considered suggestions. The Medals are to be awarded around July 4th so we will need your suggestions by Monday, June 20.

Attached is a list of all previous recipients.

SUSPENSE _____ Date _____

Remarks:

Given the terribly short deadline, I am going to impose this "requirement" on the four of you, thinking that Bernie McMahon might collect the results and pass it to the right office on Monday.
